Table III
Press Release
At various times throughout the year, individual schools will host representatives from newspapers, television stations, radio programs and/or other press-related organizations and provide information about students. If you DO NOT wish to have your student participate in these activities or have their picture published, it is imperative that you sign and return the publicity authorization to your student’s school of attendance by October 1, 2018. Release of information may include honor lists, student activities, athletic activities, music programs, drama programs, etc.
